Learning objectives:

- Understand the latest accounting, legal, and financial reporting rules and how to apply them to your venture capital firm
- Learn what other firms are doing to keep up with today's fast moving regulatory world.
- Understand the latest trends and best practices in several areas including M&A, international investing, HR, and managing the administrative side of today's far-flung firm

Location: Santa Clara Hyatt, Santa Clara CA

Registration and refund information: Registration to the NVCA annual meeting is required. While not mandatory, it is helpful for planning if participants specify this session on the registration form. Requests for refunds are handled in accordance with the annual meeting refund policy. For more information, contact Allyson Chappell at 703-524-2549.

Who should attend: The program is targeted toward the chief financial officer and in-house counsel of venture capital firms and senior staffs. The organizers have design the session to be relevant to those with significant experience as well as those professionals with experience in other industries who are new to venture capital and/or private equity.

CPE Credits: Earn up to 8 CPE credits. We are also hoping to grant CLE credits to the attorneys attending.

Program level: Intermediate (to Advanced, depending upon breakouts elected)

Pre-requisites: No specific prerequisites. Participants are expected to be familiar with the legal and/or financial aspects of a venture capital and/or private equity firm.

Advanced preparation: None specific. As session moderators prepare material, they may survey/poll registered participants.

Delivery method: Group live
